HIGHLIGHTS

DUI:

46th & Hubbard St- Officer saw vehicle driving erratically. A traffic enforcement stop revealed the driver was intoxicated. The driver failed FSTs and Pas. The driver was arrested and taken to Berkeley City Jail for DUI.

Traffic Stop:

53rd & Horton St 0400 hrs – Car stop for expired registration. The Officer saw in plain view a firearm. A search revealed two guns, approx. 2 lbs of heroin, and a no bail warrant. All three occupants were arrested and taken to Berkeley City Jail, and the vehicle was towed.

Mail Theft:

1195 Park Ave. 1316 hours, an officer took a telephone report regarding mail theft at this location. A video captured the suspect who was wearing a ski mask, hat, and hooded sweatshirt. It appeared the suspect used a master key to unlock the mailboxes to steal the mail.

1195 Park Ave. 1332 hours, while taking the above telephone report the R/P wanted to report another theft at the building. The suspect entered the building using a code and took an Amazon package. Suspect also had a master key to the mailbox and unlocked the box to check for mail. The suspect was described as a Hispanic male 35-40 years old wearing a yellow beanie, green sweatshirt with "Playboy" written across the chest, gray sweatpants, and white shoes. Video was uploaded to evidence.com and a Trak flyer was created.

Suspicious Occupied Vehicle:

3889 San Pablo Ave – 0607 hours: An Officer attempted to check on an occupied vehicle. The driver backed into the patrol vehicle, *No Damage*, and fled on the sidewalk in between Wells Fargo and Ramen 101, through the alley, and onto 40th St. The Officer lost sight of the vehicle as it turned onto Telegraph Ave from 40th St. The Officer inspected the vehicle and did not locate any damage, the vehicle's bumper hit the tire of the patrol vehicle.

Unattended Death:

2 Commodore Dr – 1222 hours: Officers were dispatched for a return call at the address. Officers conducted a thorough investigation (i.e., vehicle in the parking lot, unpaid bills to the property, neighbors hadn't seen the resident leave the unit in over 6 months, the mail which had been placed in the door in 05/2022, and the package which was delivered 04/2022) from the exterior of the unit and observed a large amount of flies inside the unit. Officers forced entry to the unit and confirmed the resident had been deceased for approximately 10 months. The Coroner responded and took custody of the decedent. Officers were able to re-secure the door and advised property management, who stated they were also going to secure it further.

Assault:

Bay St; 2100 hrs, A Bay Street security guard reported being assaulted by a subject earlier in the evening. A phone report was taken and CCTV footage was reviewed.

We are a full service PD as this incident details..

1284 64th St., 1625 hrs. : The R/P reported a female subject was attempting to stay at her Airbnb and the R/P cancelled the reservations due to the subject having cats. The R/P stated the subject was refusing to leave and requested police assistance. Officers arrived on the scene and discovered the R/P let the subject's cats out of their travel bags. One cat hid in the bushes in front of the location and one cat crawled into the engine compartment of a patrol vehicle. Officers called Animal Control for assistance and officers attempted to recover the cat from the patrol vehicle. Eventually both cats were recovered and placed back into their bags.

Weather Related Calls:

5500 block of Vallejo St. was shut down due to a large down tree blocking the entire roadway and a broken power pole with a portion of the pole hanging near a home. A shelter in place was given to the residents on Vallejo St. PG&E was on scene and repairs were pending. There was an unknown ETA for Public Works for the down tree. Officers and Traffic PSTS responded to the below scenes of down trees falling on parked cars and downed power lines. Public Works and PG&E responded to the scenes.

5930 Vallejo St. was shut down because of a downed power line, and the line landed on a parked car. PG&E was aware of the problem and the repairs timeline was unknown.

6501 Shellmound St. Public Storage. 6500 block of Shellmound was shut down due to a large tree that fell and another large tree that was on the verge of collapsing. Property management from Public Storage told officers they would cut the tree down the following day. The roadway was temporarily shut down.

Stanford Ave. and Hollis St., there was a large, downed tree on the sidewalk, but it was not blocking the roadway.
