HIGHLIGHTS

Med Men 3996 San Pablo Ave- An officer attempted a car stop on a (3) vehicle caravan that was blacked out in the 3800 block of San Pablo Ave approaching Med Men dispensary. One vehicle was a Dodge Hellcat, a Toyota Sienna van, and an Audi with front end damage. The vehicles fled at a high rate of speed south on San Pablo Ave. OPD was advised of the BOLO (Be on Look Out). A short time later OPD had a couple of commercial burglaries with the described involved vehicles. The Toyota van was left at the scene, which was later discovered to have been taken in a carjacking case. Med Men does have an overnight guard manning the temporary boarded up store front.

USPS Police served two search warrants at an undisclosed location in Emeryville. Officers located and recovered credit card embossers used to make credit cards, several credit card readers, a check printer, a stack of blank checks, counterfeit IDs, counterfeit USPS Postal keys, a stolen motorcycle, one motorcycle with the VIN tampered and unreadable, a broken arrow postal lock, USPS clothing, dozens of mail not named to anyone in the said units, several credit/debit cards, a "grenade launcher," 37mm with wooden stock which appeared to be functional, and ballistic body armor.

Robbery - Powell/Vallejo St; Officers responded to the area after the victim reported an armed robbery involving three suspects in a vehicle. The victim was driving on Vallejo St when three suspects approached his vehicle and started knocking on the windows pointing pistols at him. The suspects demanded money, so he gave them his wallet. The suspects fled in an unknown vehicle east on Powell St.

Thefts from drivers pumping gas. – (3) incidents occurred where a suspect vehicle pulls alongside the victim vehicle. A passenger gets out, quickly opens the unlocked passenger door of the victim's vehicle, and grabs an easily accessible item. The suspects then flee the area.
